About

It starts with a placement test. The result of this 'smart' test will automatically provide students with information about their current IELTS band score.

We use this information to get an accurate understanding of the students' readiness for the exam and to place them in a class that is appropriate for their level and where they will be able to make maximum progress.

Students can input the IELTS score they want to achieve on our IELTS platform. Instant, comprehensive feedback is available on their progress towards this target score after every reading and listening task, with feedback on speaking and writing available from their teacher.

The professional platform of materials is designed to be compatible with mobiles

About

Once the student's level has been established, they are ready to join their first face-to-face online class.

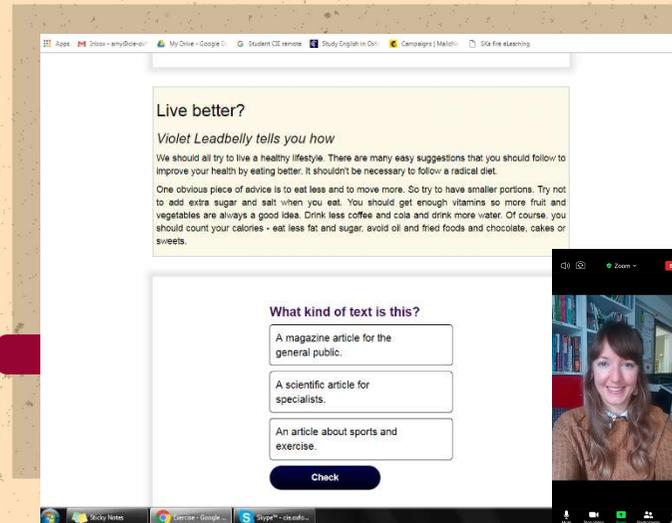

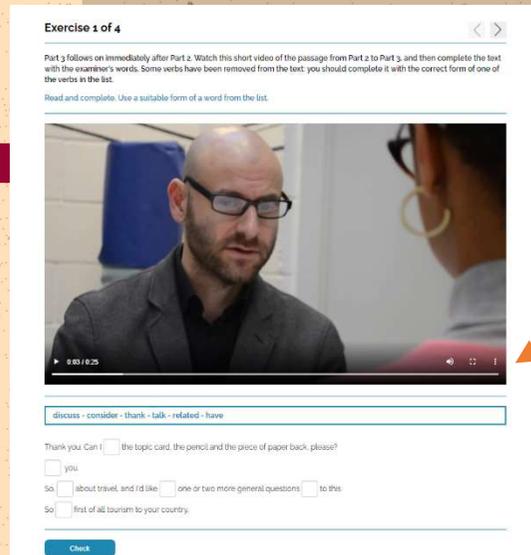

Students will meet their assigned teacher twice a week for a total of 4 hours of face-to-face online classes. In these sessions students will practise exam strategies and techniques and will be familiarised with the wide range of topics that feature in the IELTS exam. They will also be provided with lots of opportunity to speak and ask questions.

The teacher will set tasks to complete on our IELTS platform each week, ensuring that students are focussed and have clear goals. If necessary, the teacher will assign extra work and will be available to respond to questions electronically.

In addition to the guidance and support provided by the student's face-to-face teacher, our IELTS platform features an 'Ask your teacher' facility meaning the student always has access to help when they need it. This is complimented by a series of expertly made videos with help and test taking tips.

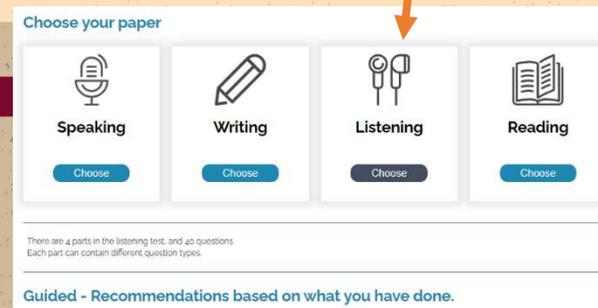

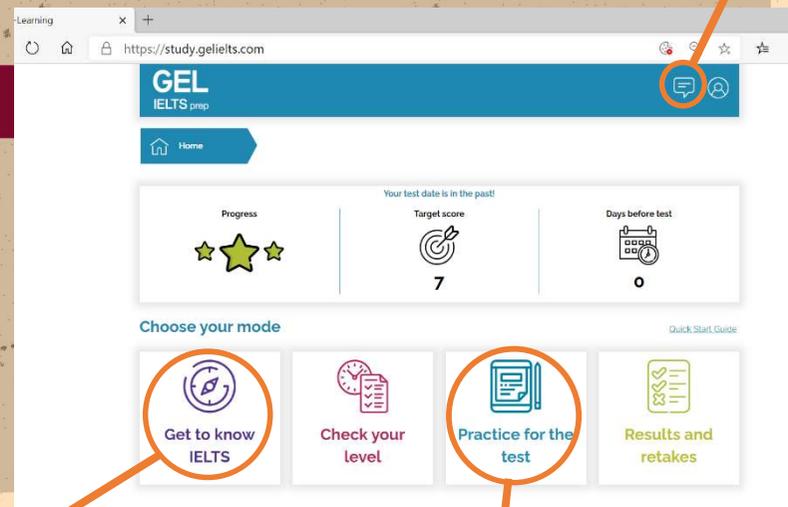

Here the student will find easy to navigate videos on each part of the exam with exercises to check understanding.

In face-to-face classes with the teacher, students will practise exam strategies and academic IELTS topics. The teacher will focus on pronunciation for the speaking exam.

Click here for the 'Ask your teacher' facility if the student has a question about their guided self-study.

There are up to 40 full IELTS practice tests available. 'Guided' mode uses the student's progress record to select the practice that the student needs to focus on.

Progress

Each student has access to a sophisticated progress tracker on the platform which keeps a record of what tasks the student has completed, the score they achieved and the time taken. They are able to review what they have done in each skill; listening, reading, writing and speaking, and redo the tasks that they want to try a second time to get an improved score.

The possibility to review and redo tasks that the student wants to improve is highly motivating

Charts like these are useful for the student and teacher to understand why they might be making more progress in certain skills. The student can use this to plan how to spend their self-study time more effectively.

The navigation pane is accessible from any page on the platform. Here students can track their progress.
